

Real stories: Real insight

This document is an extract from the full report.
It is intended for use with the film of domiciliary care workers in a training pack produced by Skills for Care.

List of published materials referenced in the full report

- End of Life Care Strategy for England and Wales. Crown Copyright July 2008.
- ‘we live in an ageing society with very old age lasting for an extended period of time, often moving imperceptibly into the dying phase’. Supporting people to live and die well: a framework for social care at the end of life. Crown Copyright, July 2010. www.nhsiq.nhs.uk.
- “Proportion of deaths that occur in usual place of residence” Department of Health operational plans 2008/09 - 2010/11 National Planning Guidance and “vital signs Indicators” www.nhshealthcheck.nhs.uk.
- Workforce: Worker Summary by Main Service Type: National Minimum Data Set for Social Care (NMDS-SC) Part 7 at www.skillsforcare.org.uk/research.
- Common core competences and principles for health and social care workers working with adults at the end of life document. NHS National End of Life Care Programme/Skills for Health/Skills for Care/Department of Health, 2010.
- Information on “Living Well” tools. www.helensandersonassociates.co.uk.
- Evidence based design in healthcare – tools developed locally.

---

Developing key worker competencies for domiciliary care workers to support an integrated pathway for end of life care.

May 2011

