

Do you care?

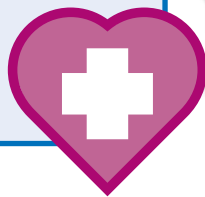

*I care...
Ambassadors*

If you enjoy what you do, spread the word! Become an I Care...Ambassador and inspire others to work in care.

I Care...Ambassadors are a national team of care workers who visit schools, colleges and job centres to talk about what it's really like to work in care. They provide a range of careers activities to explain the different roles and opportunities to help others kick-start their career.

Becoming an I Care...Ambassador is a great way to:

- Share your passion
- Develop your skills
- Help recruit the right people

You can do a range of activities:

- Presentations
- Informal talks/discussions
- Group activities
- Mentoring
- Work placements
- Attending events

Meet the I Care...Ambassadors

Hear from people who've already joined the team. Find out why they signed up and why they feel they're making a difference. www.skillsforcare.org.uk/meettheicas.

Become an ambassador because it will help to educate you and will improve your life. It promotes what you do and if you're doing something you enjoy, why not tell others about it?

Chris Goode,
Senior Support Worker

Becoming an I Care...Ambassador was a no-brainer for me, as I already actively encouraged younger people to consider a career in the sector.

Ruth Daynes,
Learning and Development Co-ordinator

For me, it's an enjoyable 'addition' to my day job. As an ambassador I have the opportunity to meet different people in various settings across the region.

Justin Charnock,
Care Manager
