

How I became a deputy manager

Zainab Saleem is a Deputy Manager at the Care Company Plus. After graduating from university, Zainab’s care career began in a HR role before progressing to a more senior role.

“I have a lot more responsibility in the Deputy Manager role. My employer has helped me to undertake extra training and qualifications and has always been available when I had questions. I value the support I receive from my manager. It gives me comfort to know somebody is overseeing the work that I’m doing.”

Progression	Quotes	Role	Learning and development
	“Because the HR role didn’t include much care related work, before accepting the new position, I started to directly deliver care to help better understand what it was like working in the field. “By continuing to deliver care as part of my deputy manager role, it helps me to understand what the carers face on a day to day basis. I think that unless you have actually provided care yourself, how can you manage it?”	Deputy Manager	Level 5 Diploma in Leadership for Health and Social Care, shadowing opportunities and higher level mandatory courses
	“I was initially involved in recruiting carers, arranging training, as well as supporting supervisions, appraisals, probations etc. After 18 months in the HR role, the opportunity arose for a Deputy Manager position.”	HR Business Administrator	Level 2 Diploma in Business Administration and mandatory courses
