

Task 3: Identifying Values

Values and personality traits are as important as skills and experience. Tick which of these apply to you and think of an example that to demonstrate.

Able to work with people

Interested in other people

Flexible

Listen to others

Communicate well

Respect others

Willing to learn

Responsible

Understand the needs of others

Calm in difficult situations

Consider other people's feelings

Now go back to your personal statement framework. What else can you add?