

Discounts: Registered Manager Members of Skills for Care

To access discounts, our members just need to provide their membership details when they purchase something from our website or over the telephone. Discounts on our Skills for Care bookshop are automatically applied when members are logged into our membership portal.

Current discounts and exclusive resources are listed below.

- Members can book places on our workshop ‘Become a confident mentor in adult social care’ for free: this one-day face-to-face workshop normally costs £160 +VAT.
- Get the printed workbook edition of the ‘Good and outstanding guide – workbook edition’ for only £20 rather than £35. If you want to achieve or sustain a good or outstanding CQC rating then this practical workbook, full of examples from real services, is the ideal resource.
- Our ‘Effective supervision guide’ provides useful advice if you’re looking to improve supervision in your service. Members get this resource for £15 instead of £20.
- Our ‘Effective workplace assessment guide’ can help you to effectively train and assess anyone new to working in the sector. Members get this resource for £15 instead of £20.
- ‘Wellbeing for registered managers: a practical survival guide’, is available exclusively to registered manager members for just £20. It’s based on the ‘Five Ways to Wellbeing’; identified by the New Economics Foundation (nef) and includes practical information, top tips, case studies, action plans and workbook exercises.
- The ‘Guide to improvement’: workbook edition is available to all members who renew their membership before April 2020. Members who aren’t due to renew until after April 2020 can buy the workbook at the one-off price of £20 from our bookshop. This workbook edition includes exercises and activities to help you make improvements across your service.
- Members get the Manager Induction Standards (MIS) workbook ‘Becoming a manager’ for £60 rather than the normal £75. It sets out what every manager needs to know and understand for their role.

- Skills for Care's Moving Up programme supports and develops managers who are aspiring to work in senior leadership roles and are from a black, Asian or minority ethnic background. Members get a discount on the cost of the programme and can access it for £950 plus VAT.
- Our one-day practical seminars around CQC inspection help regulated providers to understand the inspection process, identify the required changes to improve and prepare for inspection. Find out more about the discounts here.
