

Video : Storage

Secure Library

All recordings will be transferred into a centrally held storage library accessible via an Internet / WiFi connection.

The videos will be transferred from the Surface device, once there is an adequate internet connection and automatically deleted from the tablet/laptop

The videos will be accessible from the Surface or any PC / Laptop providing the user has the login credentials to the secure library.