

Workforce Development Fund guidance for large national employers accessing the Workforce Development Fund

What is the Workforce Development Fund (WDF)?

The Workforce Development Fund (WDF) for 2018-19 is a retrospective funding stream from the Department of Health and Social Care disseminated by Skills for Care. This means that an employer must have directly incurred costs for the qualifications or learning programmes undertaken by their staff before a claim is made through WDF on completion of the learning. The fund focuses on the achievement of qualifications and learning programmes and supports the continuing professional development of staff across the adult social care sector in England. The fund is distributed by Skills for Care via a network of employer led partnerships and large national organisations:

- An 'Area or National partnership' is a collection of social care employers who come together to 'pool' their workforce development needs.
- A 'Large National' organisation is an adult social care provider that has 1000+ care providing employees, provides services to a substantial number of people who need care and support and operates in two or more of Skills for Care areas in England.

The fund is only available to adult social care employers in England.

The application process

Organisations submitted funding applications to Skills for Care. Funding allocations were agreed and grants were awarded to successful applicants in April 2018.

How do I become eligible for funding?

To become eligible for WDF you must:

1. Have applied as a large national organisation during the competitive tender and been successful in your application signed a grant letter and submitted an organisation declaration form to Skills for Care with details of all the services you want to be able to claim funding for.
2. Comply with NMDS-SC requirements or be prepared to meet these prior to claiming funding. We have also developed a guidance document – NMDS-SC completion guidance.
3. Have employees who have completed qualifications or non-accredited learning programmes against which you want to claim funding, see the list of funded qualifications and learning programmes.

How do I comply with the NMDS-SC requirements?

Read the NMDS-SC completion guidance.

For an establishment to meet the NMDS-SC requirements for the Workforce Development Fund in 2018-19, the following three things must be completed:

1. An establishment which has completed an NMDS-SC organisational record before 1 April 2018 must fully update its organisational data.
2. The establishment must fully complete individual NMDS-SC worker records for a minimum of 90% of its total workforce (this includes any staff who are not care-providing).
3. Individual records for workers completed before 1 April 2018 which are included in the 90% calculation must be both fully completed and updated.

Once the above requirements have been met by 31 March 2019, an establishment will be able to claim WDF until 31 May 2019. An establishment's NMDS-SC account is expected to be an accurate reflection of its service and workforce. If your service or workforce changes significantly during the year it is expected that NMDS-SC will be updated. Failure to do so could affect your ability to claim funding.

How will I know when I have met the NMDS-SC requirements for WDF?

Log into your NMDS-SC account and from the left hand menu click on reports. Choose 'My WDF NMDS-SC requirements report'. This will tell you whether your establishment is 'eligible' or 'not eligible' in terms of meeting the NMDS-SC requirements for WDF. Where an establishment is not eligible, this report will show whether this is due to the establishment data or the worker data. You can then run the 'My establishment report' and / or 'My worker list' to identify gaps in the data. As these are live reports, you can update your NMDS-SC information and rerun the reports to get an updated position.

Parent establishments can run 'My WDF NMDS-SC requirements parent report'. This will show which of your subsidiaries are 'eligible' or 'not eligible' in terms of meeting the NMDS-SC requirements for WDF. If you cannot see data relating to your subsidiaries via this report, this will be because of the data sharing permissions set by the subsidiary, which will have been set so that data is not shared with the parent account.

Can I claim WDF alongside apprenticeship funding?

You can but you need to be aware of the following information, which differs between apprenticeship levy payers and non-levy payers.

Levy paying employers: The apprenticeship levy can only be used to pay training delivery and end-point assessment costs. It will be possible to claim WDF alongside the apprenticeship levy but it will not be possible to use the WDF towards training delivery or end-point assessment costs because the levy is used for that. The apprenticeship levy is a tax being applied by government so it would not be appropriate to allow public money to offset it. However, the WDF can be used towards the associated costs of training, such as the 20% off the job learning time requirement, wage replacement costs if required to release the learner to undertake training etc. Further information is available in our frequently asked questions. If a levy paying employer has used all of their levy and is accessing funding in the same way as a non-levy paying employer, see the paragraph below in relation to calculating the total cost of training delivery for those learners.

Non-levy paying employers: Access funding on a 1:9 ratio from an alternative source of funding. When calculating the total cost of training before making your WDF claim, the funds that you have directly paid towards training delivery (which may be a maximum of £300 on a standard capped at £3,000) can be factored into the total cost of training. The 90% from the government (up to £2,700 in this example) cannot because that would constitute double funding and that is not allowed. The total cost of training can also include wider costs which are directly incurred by the employer as a result of the learner undertaking training, such as the 20% off the job learning time requirement, wage replacement costs if required to release the learner to undertake training etc. Further information is available in our frequently asked questions.

If you need further information about funding for apprenticeships in addition to what is available via the Workforce Development Fund, you can find additional information on our website.

How do I claim funding?

It is important to note that a maximum of £1,200 per learner can be claimed in any financial year. The financial year for 2018/19 is 1 April 2018 to 31 March 2019. The WDF funding contribution is a maximum of the value set out on the list of funded qualifications and learning programmes even if you have incurred higher costs than this figure. If you have incurred lower costs than the value advertised it is possible to claim a lower amount of funding. Further details of how to do this are included in the how to put together a claim guidance document.

Once a member of your staff has completed some learning that is eligible for funding you should claim funding as follows.
