

Hári Sewell

Hári Sewell is the founder and director of HS Consultancy and a former executive director of health and social care in the National Health Service in the UK. He has worked for the Department of Health in regulation and policy.

Hári is a writer and speaker in his specialist area of social justice, equality, race and culture in mental health.

Hári is a Visiting Senior Lecturer at Canterbury Christ Church University. He is also a Member of the Scientific Board of the ESRC Centre for Society and Mental Health. Hári has had various books, articles and book chapters published, with new material emerging regularly.

LinkedIn | Instagram | Facebook